FAQS

Q What are the differences between high purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen and normal natural collagen?

A Superior one is formed by two different types of High purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen. Therefore the moisturizing effect relatively higher. Hydrolysis high purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen can moisturize every single part of stratum corneum. Moreover, soluble high purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen acts as the protector of moisturizer, it helps to lock the moisture inside the skin. These double protections help to remain skin elasticity and moisture.

Q What are the differences between high purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen and normal natural collagen?

A It is not the normal high purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen. It has researched and developed by the production industries and university, which is safe for use. The soft-shelled turtles are nurtured by the students from Yaizusuisan High School in Shizuoka Prefecture. They put all the effort on the nurturing process, and antibiotics are not be used. Moreover, the Pharmaceutical Department of Kindai University's outstanding collagen extraction technology also be introduced. The purify rate of collagen nearly up to 100%. Therefore, the ingredient is safe for use.

Q What is the meaning of coordinating with natural human ceramide?

A Human ceramide is the adipocyte lipid inside stratum corneum. It coordinates with the cells inside our skin to bind the moisture. It is not chemical composition, but is natural component inside our skin. Human ceramide helps high purify soft-shelled turtles' natural collagen to absorb to the stratum corneum layer.

Q After cleansing face, normally the brand suggest to use the tonner or lotion first. Why would your brand suggest using the Superior One Gel essence first?

A Superior One Gel essence acts as a back up. In order to achieve the best skin care effect, we suggest to use Superior One Gel essence before tonner or lotion.

Q Cell chou chou products can be used after make-up?

A No matter it is daytime or when you feel your skin is dry, even after make-up, you can use the Cell chou chou moisturizing spray. Basically, this product acts as a moisturizing supplement and let the foundation become glossy, also can moisture the skin before putting on make up. It is convenient for taking out.
